- - - EXPERIENCE - - -

Director of Technology, Chani Nicholas Inc, March 2021 – present

- - - Headed the technology department of a queer astrological company and produced all our podcast and associated audio. Our main products included an iOS mobile application, e-commerce site, blogging platform, React based web chart tool and others. We are currently working on Android and web applications as well as our own custom API for astrological calculations. I also worked closely with marketing, production, and content to make sure we were consistent in terms of brand and copy, and with outside vendors hosting our astrological mathematical APIs and any other third-party vendors.

Software Engineer, Folx Health, October 2020 – March 2021

- - - Lead the creation and implementation of a library of articles for a transgender health company. In this contract job I worked with the lead designer and wrote the front end code for this library built in Gatsby JS connecting to a CMS called Butter.

Freelance Writer, July 2003 – present

- - - Publications I have contributed to include Nylon, The Advocate, INTO, The Daily Dot, Autostraddle, Just Out, After Ellen, OregonLive, DVD Talk, Willamette Week.
